

CONFERENCE CALL FOR TRIANON – DOCTORAL STUDENT CONFERENCE SERIES

The Association of Hungarian PhD and DLA Candidates (DOSZ) is pleased to inform doctoral students, doctoral candidates, young researchers, and master's students that DOSZ in cooperation with the University of Debrecen is holding a multidisciplinary scientific conference labelled as the Trianon – Doctoral Student Conference Series, between 25-26th of November 2022.

The DOSZ announces the 2022 Trianon – Doctoral Student Conference series, in accordance with the doctoral student events of previous years, as a working language event in Hungarian and English. It is possible to present the research results in the form of a scientific oral presentation.

PhD students, young researchers and master's students who are examining the effects of the Trianon Peace Treaty (e.g. economic, security and military policy, diplomatic, political, cultural, social, health, demographic, geopolitical) are welcome to apply for some events of the Trianon – Doctoral Student Conference Series within their scientific field, or they can draw parallels between their results in their own research topic and the already known or new aspects of the Trianon Peace Treaty.

Registration

Attendance at the conference is subject to pre-registration. The registration interface is available on the DOSZ website (https://dosz.hu/url/trianon_debrecen). In order to facilitate communication during the registration process, applicants must provide their contact details. The information the applicants provide will be handled in accordance with DOSZ Data Privacy Policy. Registration first becomes effective with an abstract submission of a minimum of 1800 and a maximum of 3600 characters. The abstract is a summary of the applicant's scientific work, in which the background of the research, the aim of the scientific research, the questioning, then the results achieved so far and further possibilities are briefly summarized, without references, according to the formal and content requirements of scientific writing. Five keywords that describe the topic are also required. The abstract can only be uploaded via the registration interface as an attachment to the registration. Please note that organizers do not accept applications submitted via e-mail or on other communicational channels.

Deadline for submissions and abstracts: 14 October 2022 11:59 pm
